Mississippi Students Award Winners of the Lawrence & Lucimarian Roberts Helpline Scholarship

Fund managed by Gulf Coast Community Foundation

BILOXI-SEPTEMBER 23, 2008, The Gulf Coast Community Foundation announced today that four Mississippi college students are recipients of the Lawrence and Lucimarian Roberts Helpline Scholarship. The Scholarship winners include Dionna Bush, Tiffany Galloway, Heather Jenkins and Chelsea Tyner. Students were chosen to receive the $1,000.00 dollar scholarship based on their attendance at a Mississippi college or university, their grade point average, and a major in the behavioral health and science field.

The Helpline Scholarship Fund was established by Lawrence and Lucimarian Roberts to help individuals further their education in a helping or human serviced profession such as psychology, counseling, social work, or other major in the behavioral health and science field.

Students who are interested in applying for the next round of Helpline scholarships should go to the Gulf Coast Community Foundation web site at www.mgccf.org. The next application deadline will be May 2009.

If you are interested in supporting your local community through the Gulf Coast Community Foundation, you can make a donation by calling the Gulf Coast Community Foundation at (228)897-4841, by sending a check to GCCF, PO Box 2984, Gulfport, MS 39505-2984, or by logging onto the foundation's web site at www.mgccf.org.
